The Parkes to Narromine Project (P2N) is the first Inland Rail project to commence construction. The project involves the upgrade of 98km of existing rail track, with an additional 5km of new track to be built near Parkes to provide a better connection to the existing East – West Interstate line. The construction contractor INLink (a joint venture between BMD Constructions and Fulton Hogan) has established offices in Parkes and Peak Hill.

The Australian Government is delivering Inland Rail through the Australian Rail Track Corporation (ARTC), in partnership with the private sector.

In this report, the term 'local' refers to residents and businesses in the local government areas of Narromine Shire, Parkes Shire, Dubbo Regional Shire, Forbes Shire and Orange City Council. The workforce numbers represent all individuals who have worked on the project during the period, including subcontractors of INLink. Spend with local and Indigenous business is total spend since the inception of the construction project. All numbers are current as at the end of June 2019.
